

INFOPACK

KA1 Erasmus Plus

“Get Connected 2”

Training Course

PLACE AND DATE: Uri, Sassari, Sardinia (Italy) APRIL 14-21, 2015 (Travel Day included)

PARTICIPANTS: 21 participants, Youth workers, Trainers, Youth leaders, Project managers, Youth Policy Makers.

COUNTRIES: Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Italy, Malta, Poland, Romania and Spain.

At least 2 participants from each country.

LANGUAGE: The working language will be English.

This mobility project (TC) would like to develop participants' skills, knowledge and attitudes concerning how to involve youth people through E-Media in the policy's decision making process.

We will dedicate each day to a social media tool (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and YouTube) starting with a contribution of an expert and concluding with practical challenges for participants.

The connection between the days and the full picture of the event will be clear on the last day; the idea is to create an European Campaign on the ethical use of Social Media itself.

What to bring?

Since there is going to be an international evening, we will ask you to bring something traditional, famous or delicious from home - that you would like to represent your country with, and share with the others, it can be any kinds of food, drink...

Weather in Uri is generally mild, with few raining days. Nevertheless, in the evening it can be wet and windy, so we suggest to bring winter jackets and warm clothes, together with lighter items.

Accommodation and Food

Participants will be accommodated in a nice B&B located in the city center of Uri.
